Counting Rules

Cases - Are the incidents that generate complaints. One incident will contain one or more allegation made by one or more complainant, which will subsequently be recorded against one or more officer/staff member.

Allegations - Are an interpretation of officer/staff behaviour at the incident. The conduct alleged is categorised by IPCC Statutory Guidance into 'Categories' (e.g. Failure in Duty and Oppressive Behaviour). There can potentially be multiple allegations on one incident. Allegations are counted against the borough of incident.

Officer/staff Allegations - Are an interpretation of who did what at the incident. Officers/staff are counted against each allegation made against them (i.e. the number of allegations on a case, multiplied by the officers/staff involved). Officer Allegations are counted against the officers/staff unit at time of incident. If an officer is unidentified, then the officer allegation is counted against the borough of incident.

Per 100 Workforce (Cases/ Officer/staff Allegations) - The 'per 100' calculation divides the number of cases/ officer/staff allegations by the workforce for the Borough/OCU and is multiplied by 100. This calculation is used to allow even comparison between those boroughs with a large/small workforce.

Complainants - Are the number of people complaining on a case. Depending on the number of complainants, allegations and officer/staff allegations may be multiplied further - in these cases there is double counting.

Officers/Staff Involved - Are the number of officers / staff recorded on a case. This is not allegation related - it purely counts the number of officers/staff recorded on the case.

All the figures within this report are based on 'Recorded' complaints. This means that anything resulted as 'Not Recorded' is excluded, unless otherwise stated.

Definition of 'Not Recorded' Public Complaints - refers to instances where a force or police authority determines that an allegation should not be recorded. Instances where this may occur include: If the allegation is part of another complaint which they have already recorded, the complaint has been withdrawn by the person who made it, the allegation is about direction and control, the allegation has been made by someone serving with the police, the complaint is not covered by the Police Reform Act 2002.
