Police forces in the United Kingdom are routinely required to provide crime statistics to government bodies and the recording criteria is set nationally. However, the systems used for recording these figures are not generic, nor are the procedures used locally in capturing the crime data. It should be noted that for these reasons this force's response to your questions should not be used for comparison purposes with any other response you may receive.

Notes

As of 1 April 2008, the knife or other sharp instrument feature codes identifying how a knife or other sharp instrument was used are:

XI Knife or other sharp instrument used to injure

XT Any knife or other sharp instrument used as a threat or in an attempt to injure

XP Knife or other sharp instrument intimidated – victim convinced weapon present

The data in this report was produced from CRIS using the Knife feature codes 'XI, XT and XP'
