All meetings are led by club safety. The safety officer also speaks to the away teams safety officer. There are lots of documents / risk assessments to be completed. You also need time to complete the necessary qualifications.

[REDACTED] suggested that seats need to be numbered accurately to help the stewards. [REDACTED] said that many of [REDACTED] [REDACTED] have been here for a long time so that they know the ground. An induction is given to new stewards. They have to know the answers to a set of questions. [REDACTED] commented that there have been lots of new stewards post covid added that football stewards need to be asked if next season, when the new stand opens,

A big thank you to for his insight into controlling a matchday.

Before the meeting we had devised a list of questions to the Met. read out each question.

What time does the police day begin?
