

Freedom of Information Act Publication Scheme
Protective Marking	Official
Publication Scheme Y/N	Yes
Title	Gifts and Hospitality Register – December 2019
Version
Summary	Total number of Gifts and Hospitality Register for Frontline Policing – including a list of Gifts and Hospitality accepted and declined – December 2019
(B)OCU or Unit, Directorate	Frontline Policing
Author
Review Date	March 2022
Date Issued	January 2020

METROPOLITAN POLICE

GIFTS AND HOSPITALITY REGISTER

Frontline Policing

*Name of recipient	*Rank/Band	*B/OCU / Branch /Unit	*Nature of benefit i.e. Gift, Hospitality	*Accepted or Declined?	*Reason for acceptance/refusal	*Details of provider / company	*Disposal method e.g. gift has been donated to a charity
Police Constable	PC	AS	Box of chocolates		Refusal would cause offence.	Bell Fundraising	Retained by officer
Police Staff	PAO	AS	Box of biscuits & bottle of wine		Refusal would cause offence.	Member of the Public	Biscuits retained by officer. Wine donated to charity
Detective Constable	DC	AS	Amazon Gift Voucher		Refusal would cause offence.	Member of the Public	Retained by officer
Glen O'Dea	Insp	AW	Hospitality - 7 x Wristbands giving access to Winter Wonderland preview night. 4 are for relatives of officers who have died in service from Royal Parks Police. 3 x serving officers to chaperone.		I believe that acceptance is justified as it is for a good cause and a refusal would offend the partner agency concerned.	Governance & Policy Manager, The Royal Parks.	Allocated as requested
Police Constable	PC	AW - ERPT Team E	02/12/2019		Refusal would cause offence.	Member of the public.	Will be donated to the next LDSS charity day.
Police Officers / Staff		CE HT	Chocolate		Goodwill Gesture. Accepted, refusal would cause offence.	Lindt	Distributed amongst Staff

Police Officers / Staff		CE HT	Gift Card		Christmas Gift. Accepted to decline would have caused offence.	Member of the public	Awaiting Identity of officer as old shoulder number GD388 - Identified as James Blackman.
Police Staff	Band E	EA	Flowers		Christmas Gift. Accepted to decline would have caused offence.	Member fo the public	Kept at Front Office
PCSO	PCSO	EA	2 x boxes of Ferrero chocolate and 1 Poinsettia plant.		Christmas Gift. Accepted to decline would have caused offence.	Member of the public	Distributed amongst Staff
Edmonton Police station	PAO	NA - YE	£50 cash and box of Chocolates.		Gift accepted as refusal would cause offence.	Member of the public	Will be donated to charity
Police Staff	Band E	NE	Chocolates, fruit, biscuits.		Christmas gift to local officers to refuse would cause offence.	Member of the public	Shared between ERPT, SNT and PAO staff
		CSC - Vulnerability Modern Slavery	Quantity of toiletries, several towels & blankets, tea, coffee & sugar		Request from CSC MPS No budget for such items, request made to local business pre-Christmas. Donated to our reception centre's for trafficked / exploited and victims of Modern Slavery	Fulham Waitrose	Retained ready for donation to victims of crime
		CSC - Coroners	Bottles of wine pre-Christmas		Not deemed appropriate	Albins & Son Funeral Directors	Declined and returned to gifter
		CSC - Coroners	Mugs, Calendars & Cake		Partner agency - funeral directors, small gifts donated for staff pre-Christmas	Albins & Son Funeral Directors	Retained