Information Fair Trader Scheme

We are personally committed to ensuring that the Metropolitan Police trades in information fairly and in accordance with the law. To demonstrate the strength of this commitment, the Mayor's Office for Policing and Crime (MOPAC) has applied for Information Fair Trader accreditation from the Controller of Her Majesty's Stationary Office (HMSO).

We will ensure that MOPAC follows an open and transparent system of trading that meets the requirements of the Competition Act 1998. Our aim is that, in principle and subject to applicable legislation and policy constraints, we meet the needs of anyone who applies to re-use information that falls within the MOPAC delegated authority for any purpose.

The MPS sets procedures and methods for setting prices in line with applicable HMSO guidance and best practice. We will publish these on the MPS web-site and apply them fairly and equitably. Any exceptions to the charges are described in full on the web-site and available to anyone who qualifies for them.

We will investigate any complaints received that it has broken this commitment and will publish the complaints and the results of the investigations on the web-site. We will report complaints regularly to the advisory panel on Crown Copyright.
